

Quality Assurance

Precision Turbines, Inc. is committed to providing complete customer satisfaction through delivery of quality products and services which meet or exceed customer expectations. Precision Turbines' management is committed to implement our quality policy through the following courses of action: providing our customers with only quality products and services; establishing quality requirements and ensuring that suppliers, partners and contractors comply with them; and continually maintaining and improving the effectiveness of our quality system.